

On April 18, Governor John Lynch honored the group known as “The Pease Greeters” at the State House. Speaking to an over-flow crowd at the Executive Council Chamber, Lynch thanked the members for greeting over 12,000 service men and women as they pass through the Portsmouth International Airport at Pease either on their way to Iraq or Afghanistan or coming home from the war.

The Governor presented Captain Ed Johnson with the following Citation:

State of New Hampshire

JOHN LYNCH

Governor

CITATION

Be it hereby known that I,
John Lynch,
Governor of the State of New Hampshire, join with my fellow citizens in extending my personal best wishes and heartfelt thanks to

The Pease Greeters Group

who have shown immense dedication to American service members by sending them off for duty overseas and welcoming them upon their return. All citizens of the State of New Hampshire appreciate your commitment to those who are serving our nation. The State of New Hampshire is fortunate to have you in the community. On behalf of the citizens of New Hampshire, I commend you for your commitment to your country and its military, and wish you all the best in the future.

Presented: April 18, 2007
